Dr. Richard Prather

The mathematics of how your brain learns math.

October 25, 2018  7:00 - 8:30 PM

Richard Prather earned his PhD at the University of Wisconsin and has been faculty at the University of Maryland since 2014. He is a professor in the College of Education and part of the Brain and Behavior Initiative. His research focuses on cognitive processes involved in number & mathematical tasks, with the goal of improving children’s understanding of mathematics.

In the Fed Commons of the Chelsea School Campus located at:
2970 Belcrest Center Dr., Suite 300
Hyattsville, MD 20782

Please join us for the first in our 2018-19 series of public engagement events aimed at strengthening our community’s knowledge of learning disabilities. Speakers, along with Chelsea School staff, will be available for a brief question and answer session following each presentation.

Free & Open to the Public

For directions, or to RSVP (encouraged), please contact:
Information@ChelseaSchool.edu
(240) 467 - 2100