Dr. Kelly Mix
Space and Math: How Can Teachers Leverage the Connection?

March 8, 2018  7:00 - 8:30 PM

Kelly Mix earned her Ph.D. at the University of Chicago in 1995 and has held faculty positions in the Department of Psychology at Indiana University and the College of Education at Michigan State University. She has received research funding from the Institute of Education Sciences, the National Science Foundation, the National Institutes of Health, and the Spencer Foundation. Her research is focused on the development of number concepts and mathematical reasoning, with a particular interest in the use of cognitive science principles to improve children’s learning.

In the Fed Commons of the Chelsea School Campus located at:
2970 Belcrest Center Dr., Suite 300
Hyattsville, MD 20782

Please join us for Part 2 in a series of public engagement events aimed at strengthening our community’s knowledge of learning disabilities. Speakers, along with Chelsea School staff, will be available for a brief question and answer session following each presentation.

Free & Open to the Public

For directions, or to RSVP (encouraged), please contact:
Co-Heads@ChelseaSchool.edu
(240) 467 - 2100